LUNCHEON FOR AGRONSKY THURSDAY AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA---

A no-host luncheon for CBS news correspondent Martin Agronsky will be at noon Thursday at the University of Montana.

Ray Chapman, UM student union director, said the public is welcome to attend the luncheon, which is slated for the Cascade Room in the Lodge. Those attending should bring their trays of food to the Cascade Room.

Agronsky will be moderator of a political symposium at 2:40 p.m. Thursday in the University Theater. Afternoon classes at the University will be shortened so students can attend.

The symposium, which is open to the public without charge, will feature a face-to-face confrontation between five state political candidates. Speakers will include Gov. Tim Babcock, candidate for re-election; Atty. Gen. Forrest Anderson, Democratic candidate for governor; Wayne Montgomery, New Reform gubernatorial candidate; Tom Judge, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, and Tom Selstad, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor.

Agronsky also will address students at a 9 a.m. journalism class Thursday at the University.

The symposium is sponsored by the Associated Students' Program Council.
